Dear Mr Rich

1. We act for Sky Network Television Limited (“SKY”).
2. SKY is the owner or licensed user of the programme listings information for all programming that it broadcasts, as well as the names and logos associated with its channels.
3. We understand that Nice Technology Limited hosts the website at <http://epg.pvr.geek.nz>. This site is providing its users with SKY programme listings information which it is not authorised to distribute to the public in New Zealand. We believe this is a breach of:

 - (c) the Fair Trading Act 1993.
4. SKY considers any breach of its intellectual property rights to be a very serious matter, and accordingly we request that you immediately cease to provide access to the above website, and destroy or require the destruction of all documents, electronic files and information within your control (including material held by third parties) that relate to the above website and contain listings information or trade marks belonging to SKY.
5. Please provide written confirmation that the requirements in paragraph 4 above have been met by close of business on Friday, 19 March 2010.
